

Media Credential Guidelines

Media credentials are given to members of the working media whose attendance at the Exodus conference may result in print, web, radio or television coverage. Media members may be required to submit credential information to support their qualifications.

Eligibility: Applications for credentials will be considered from representatives of:

- Daily newspapers as well as wire and news services
- National or international news magazines
- Local radio and television networks
- National radio and television networks
- Recognized news Internet sites updating news content daily
- Blogs updating news content

Individuals Who Do Not Qualify for Media Credentials: Individuals representing companies or organizations listed below do not qualify for media registration.

- Book authors
- Companies/organizations producing publications, videos, and/or other items solely for the purpose of marketing, advertising, financial analysis, or public relations
- Consultants
- Public relations staff and/or representatives from communications, print, and on-line promotion organizations
- Other representatives who are not reporting on the annual conference itself

To Receive Media Credentials . . . Please contact the Exodus Press Office by e-mail: press@exodusinternational.org, phone: (407) 599-6872 or fax: (407) 599-0011. You may be contacted by Exodus International representatives and asked to provide supporting documentation to receive your media credentials. All media notifying Exodus in advance will receive confirmation of their registration. Media registering on-site for the annual conference must bring documentation to receive media credentials. Misuse of credentials will result in an automatic loss of press privileges. Exodus International reserves the right to deny/revoke credentials at any time.
